Location: La Asomada

Nestled within Lanzarote's awe-inspiring volcanic landscape, this remarkable property is a true architectural gem blending luxury, privacy, and natural beauty. Set across four levels, it offers an unrivalled living experience, seamlessly integrated into its surroundings with breathtaking sea views extending across to Fuerteventura. The main villa features 3 spacious bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, along with a bodega and a covered, heated pool designed for year-round enjoyment. Floor-to-ceiling windows capture the panoramic views, creating bright, elegant interiors ideal for both relaxation and entertaining. Complementing the main residence are three independent 1-bedroom apartments, each with its own bathroom and private terrace. Perfect for hosting guests or generating holiday rental income, these apartments add versatility and value to the estate. Spanning 40,000 m² of private land, the property is a haven of peace and exclusivity. Carefully landscaped terraces and pathways embrace the natural volcanic environment, while unique features and bespoke art pieces lend an air of sophistication and individuality throughout. This extraordinary estate offers endless possibilities—whether as a serene private residence, an artist's retreat, a boutique rental business, or an investment in Lanzarote's thriving holiday home market.
